

A Safe Place for Your Newborn Baby in Orange County

Are you pregnant?

Don't know what to do?

Not ready to be a parent?

Want to protect your newborn baby?

Feel alone?

Need help or someone to talk to anonymously?

Please call or visit:

211 Orange County: 2-1-1 or 1-888-600-4357

CA Baby Safe: 1-877-222-9723

www.babysafe.ca.gov

California Safely Surrendered Baby Law allows parents or lawful custodians to bring their newborn baby, up to three days old (72 hours), to employees or staff at a hospital emergency room, all fire stations displaying safe surrender signs (see above) or Orangewood Children's Home in Orange County.

Facts about California Safely Surrendered Baby Law:

- ◆ Protects the child and the parent or lawful custodian
- ◆ Parents have three days (72 hours) from birth to surrender their child
- ◆ Allows 14 days for parents to change their mind after surrender
- ◆ Parents or lawful custodians are protected from prosecution for abandonment

To Find the Nearest Safe Surrender Site. Call 1-877-BABYSAF (1-877-222-9723)